

Dr. Tony Yao
Portfolio Manager
Arrowpoint Asset Management

Tony began his investment career at Janus Capital Group in 2002, straight out of Stanford University where he received his MD and PhD. While at Janus, he covered virtually all segments in healthcare and all cap sizes. In 2012, Tony left Janus to join Arrowpoint Partners to become a portfolio manager. He now focuses primarily on small/smld cap public biotechnology companies and also looks to invest in private companies as well.
