

National Investor Relations Institute | Orange County

2018–2019 | Fact Sheet

Who are we? Established in 1990, the Orange County Chapter of NIRI is comprised of corporate practitioners and investor relations consultants representing public companies of all sizes across a wide spectrum of industries, as well as the service providers who support the profession. The chapter hosts regular and special meetings, and networking events throughout the year featuring topics of relevance to investor relations officers (IROs) and other professionals who interact with IROs or the investment community.

Founded in 1969, NIRI is the professional association of corporate officers and investor relations consultants responsible for communication among corporate management, shareholders, securities analysts and other financial community constituents. The largest professional investor relations association in the world, NIRI's more than 3,300 members represent over 1,600 publicly held companies and $9 trillion in stock market capitalization (www.niri.org).

Our goal: The NIRI Orange County Chapter is a trusted source of education and information about the practice of Investor Relations. Its Board of Directors strives to develop programs that enhance our members' knowledge of investor relations, and provide opportunities for professional development in a welcoming and supportive environment. Our slate of programs is designed to cover a range of topics that are of interest to other professionals who interact with IROs or the investment community.

How can we help you? NIRI Orange County provides an opportunity to learn from, and contribute to, a community of fellow investor relations professionals. The chapter membership has hundreds of years of combined investor relations experience covering a wide range of subjects related to the execution of a proactive investor communication program. The OC Board of Directors is available to serve as a resource to all member practitioners, and you are invited to contact any Board member for authoritative advice and counsel on issues pertaining to the investor relations profession.
