

Laurie Little

Senior Vice President

TPG

Laurie holds more than 20 years of experience in strategic communications, analysis, institutional marketing and financial media relations for high profile companies. Her primary focus is on managing and executing strategic IR programs for TPG's U.S. practice, as well as providing strategic oversight for TPG's China practice.

Laurie joins TPG from Valeant Pharmaceuticals International Inc., a multinational, multi-billion dollar specialty pharmaceutical company, where she was responsible for developing and managing the company's global communications program, including investor relations, public relations, internal communications, government affairs and Valeant's philanthropic efforts. Prior to Valeant, Laurie was at SICOR, Inc., Spectrum Pharmaceuticals, Inc. and PacifiCare Health Systems where she led the companies' investor and corporate communications efforts. She was also previously an Instructor at the University of California, Irvine, teaching courses in investor relations.

Laurie is a member of the National Investor Relations Institute (NIRI) and served on the Senior Roundtable Steering Committee and on the Board for the Orange County Chapter for several years. She received her bachelor's degree in business administration from California State University, Fullerton and an MBA from the George L. Graziadio School of Business and Management at Pepperdine University.